

R. KEITH PARKS SCHOLARSHIP FUND

Recognizing God's Call to International Missions

Who He Is

Keith Parks is recognized as a paradigm of distinguished service in international missions. Parks was president of the Foreign Mission Board (FMB) from 1980 to 1992. His tenure on the missions field and as president of the FMB comprised a 38-year commitment to missions.

About the Scholarship

The R. Keith Parks Scholarship Fund was begun in 1992 in recognition of Parks's dedication to international missions. The fund provides assistance to women who are following God's call to international missions.

Scholarship Purpose

Scholarships can be utilized for academic preparation or internships that will equip women for service in WMU missions work or on the international field. For application information, visit www.wmufoundation.com or call toll-free 1-877-482-4483.

How You Can Help

God can use whatever gift, no matter how large or small, to make a world of difference in the lives of young women seeking to follow His call. Support us prayerfully and financially by sending your gift to:
